

A Funny Thing Happened When We Moved to the Country

Read Hobby Farms contributing editors' stories of moving to the country--and then tell your tale!

6/26/2008

What's your funny "new-to-the-country" story?

Sue Weaver starts us off:

"It was early January and a very snowy year, so the white stuff was already pretty deep when we arrived. Well, actually I was involved in two deep snow country blunders within the first few days ..." Read More

Cherie Langlois says:

"... although I'd done trail riding and taken a few lessons along the way, I was still very much a green rider ... I should have known better. There's a saying in the horse world that I think goes: "Green plus green ... Read More

Don't be shy!

You know we're all in it together! Visit the forum today ...