

Cheese Making Workshops in Oklahoma

These cheese-making workshops at the HLA Country Farm fill up fast. Two more are set for May 24 and 31.

5/9/2008

The HLA Country Farm in Talala, Oklahoma is hosting two more hands-on milking and cheesemaking workshops on May 24 and 31.

Cost is $50 per person.

Each participant will have the opportunity to learn how to milk both cows and goats.

After milking and cleanup are completed, the cheesemaking portion of the workshop will begin.

Openings are limited to 8 people per workshop, so register early to ensure a place.
