

January/February 2010 - Table of Contents

Hobby Farm Home is your resource for true country living!

Previous Issue

Next Issue

Subscribe Today! Features

Uncommon Baking Goods

Whether it's food allergies or a sense of adventure that propels you to reach for something other than wheat, baking with unique flours just got easier.

by Adrienne L. Shtop

Passport to Potpies

Take a trip around the world without stepping foot outside your kitchen with these international versions of the traditional potpie.

by Patricia Lehnhardt

Patchwork of Memories

Crazy quilts began as a functional memorial to lost loved ones. Follow one woman's journey to honor her mother, one block at a time. More >>

by Erin McKay

Tight-knit Business

Driven by a love of animals and the fiber their coats offer, two women started Argyle Fiber Mill, a full-service fiber business to serve their community of weavers.

by Lisa Kivirist

Exclusively Etsy

Get the insider look at how this online marketplace can bring your handmade and vintage goods to the forefront.

by Samantha Johnson

Old Barn, New Tricks

You don't have to sacrifice function for beauty: Preserve the charm of your old barn without forgoing the modern amenities.

by Louann Chaudier

Columns

Lessons Learned
Cherie Langlois

Country Fare
Lynda King

Farm Fetishes
Jean M. Fogle

Home Clinic
Cheryl Morrison

Hands On
Emery Hinkley

Garden Home Solutions
P. Allen Smith

Garden Grit
Andy Tomolonis

Nature Calls
Linda Tagliaferro

Animal Talk
Audrey Pavia

In Every Issue
Editor's Note
On the Market
General Store
Homespun
Storefront
In the Air
HobbyFarms.com
Marketplace
Good Reading
Classified Advertising
Back Home

Browse Previous Issues September-October 2009

November-December 2009