

September/October 2009 - Table of Contents

Hobby Farm Home is your resource for true country living!

Previous Issue

Next Issue

Subscribe Today!

Features

Fall Harvest Affair

As you bring in the bounty from your garden this year, share it with family and friends in a traditional harvest celebration. Use your favorite recipes or try some of ours featured here.

by Kelly Wood

Aging Gracefully

With the right environment and training, more women are starting farmstead cheese-making operations of their own: from milking the animals to marketing the cheese.

by Lisa Kivirist

Cider Day Rules!

Making cider from a robust apple crop may be the point of the West Corinth Community Cider Day, but building a community is a nice side-benefit.

by Adrienne L. Shtop

Wild, Wild Wines

This harvest season, try making handcrafted wines from common fruit—from blackberries to peaches—grown locally.

by Sue Weaver

What to Plant Now

Autumn is upon us, but that doesn't mean your garden is done growing. Learn what to plant now and how to extend your growing season into the colder months.

by Jessica Walliser

Leaves of Green

If you enjoy birdwatching on your farm, get busy crafting a beautiful sand-cast birdbath using oversized leaves, concrete and these easy steps.

by Kelly Wood

Autumn's Artistry

Try these three fresh projects for decorating with pumpkins, leaves, gourds and other fall classics.

by Adrienne L. Shtop

Columns

Lessons Learned

Cherie Langlois

Country Fare

Lynda King

Garden Grit

Susan M. Brackney

Garden Home

Solutions
P. Allen Smith

Farm Fetishes
Mary Beth Temple

Home Clinic
Cheryl Morrison

Hands On Rhoda Peacher

Nature Calls
Linda Tagliaferro

Animal Talk
Audrey Pavia

In Every Issue

Editor's Note
On the Market
General Store
In the Air
HobbyFarms.com
Good Reading
Marketplace
Gallery
Classified
Advertising
Back Home

Browse Previous Issues
May-June 2009

July-August 2009