

Farming and Livestock Resources

Livestock and farming resources from breed profiles and rescue groups to local food, farming events and farming classes.

Find numerous local resources for farmers and livestock owners: breed profiles, breed associations, farmers' markets, local food and cooperative extension offices, organic food information and upcoming events from around the country.

Livestock Breed Profiles

Read descriptions of sheep, cattle and other species for your hobby farm.

Livestock Breed Associations

Find livestock breeders from around the country. Photo courtesy Black Watch Farms

Farmers' Markets

Databases to farmers' markets around the country are available; find them here.

Cooperative Extensions

These are the go-to experts for all types of ag-related advice. Sustainable Agriculture
Learn more about sustainable farming systems.

Local Food

Are you a "locavore?" Resources abound for those who want to eat local!

Livestock Rescue Groups

Find organizations that rescue and care for abandoned or lost farm animals. Organic Food and Resources
Stop here for tips and information about starting and sustaining your organic farming practices. Hobby Farms
Publications Find past and current issues of Hobby Farms, Hobby Farm Home, Popular Farming Series and Hobby Farms books.

Calendar of Events

Workshops, festivals, conferences and more--submit your event, too!

Help Build Our Resources!

Do you know of a resource or an event you think we should include on this page, email it to us! (As with all editorial content, postings are subject to the editor's discretion.)